

Ready to Challenge Yourself?

Let's discover how much you know about this topic!

Quiz Information

Topics: Guru Nanak Gurburab

Total Questions: 18

Difficulty Level: Easy

Quiz ID: QZ-20251030-22996

Generated by: Guest User

Question 1 of 18

Who was the founder of Sikhism?

A Guru Tegh Bahadur

B Guru Gobind Singh

C Guru Arjan

D Guru Nanak

Correct Answer: D

Explanation: Guru Nanak is the founder of Sikhism, and he laid the foundation for the teachings and philosophy of the religion.

Question 2 of 18

What does 'Gurpurab' signify?

- A A celebration of peace
- B A festival for harvesting
- C The birth anniversary of a Guru
- D A day of fasting

Correct Answer: C

Explanation: Gurpurab signifies the birth anniversary of a Guru, particularly Guru Nanak in this context.

Question 3 of 18

In which year was Guru Nanak born?

A 1450

B 1469

C 1480

D 1500

Correct Answer: B

Explanation: Guru Nanak was born in the year 1469 in Talwandi, which is now known as Nankana Sahib in Pakistan.

Question 4 of 18

What is the holy scripture of Sikhism?

- A Quran
- B Vedas
- C Guru Granth Sahib
- D Bible

Correct Answer: C

Explanation: The Guru Granth Sahib is the central religious scripture of Sikhism, containing the teachings of Guru Nanak and other Sikh Gurus.

Question 5 of 18

Which city is associated with the birthplace of Guru Nanak?

- A Nankana Sahib
- B Delhi
- C Lahore
- D Amritsar

Correct Answer: A

Explanation: Guru Nanak was born in Nankana Sahib, which is now located in Pakistan.

Question 6 of 18

What is the significance of the 'Langar' in Sikhism?

- A Holy water distribution
- B A prayer service
- C Pilgrimage site
- D Community kitchen

Correct Answer: D

Explanation: Langar refers to the community kitchen in Sikh temples where free meals are served to all, promoting equality and community service.

Question 7 of 18

What is celebrated on Gurburab?

- A Harvest festival
- B Victory day
- C The birth of a Guru
- D New Year

Correct Answer: C

Explanation: Gurburab celebrations often commemorate the birth of Guru Nanak and are marked by prayers and community gatherings.

Question 8 of 18

What is the main teaching of Guru Nanak?

- A Caste superiority
- B Asceticism
- C Rituals and sacrifices
- D Equality and brotherhood

Correct Answer: D

Explanation: Guru Nanak emphasized the teachings of equality, brotherhood, and the oneness of God.

Question 9 of 18

Which festival often coincides with the celebration of Gurpurab?

A Holi

B Eid

C Christmas

D Diwali

Correct Answer: D

Explanation: Gurpurab sometimes coincides with Diwali, especially when it falls in the month of Kartik on the lunar calendar.

Question 10 of 18

What is the traditional attire worn during Gurburab celebrations?

A Shorts and Tank tops

B Jeans and T-shirt

C Business suits

D Sari and Kurta

Correct Answer: D

Explanation: During Gurburab celebrations, traditional attire such as Sari for women and Kurta for men is commonly worn.

Question 11 of 18

What role did Guru Nanak play in promoting peace?

- A Advocating war
- B Promoting dialogue and understanding
- C Encouraging conflict
- D Ignoring social issues

Correct Answer: B

Explanation: Guru Nanak promoted dialogue and understanding among different communities to foster peace and harmony.

Question 12 of 18

Which of the following practices did Guru Nanak advocate?

A Karma and reincarnation

B Blind rituals

C Caste discrimination

D Service to humanity

Correct Answer: D

Explanation: Guru Nanak advocated for 'Seva' or service to humanity as a core principle of Sikhism.

Question 13 of 18

What does 'Ik Onkar' represent in Sikhism?

- A Unity of God
- B Material wealth
- C Multiple deities
- D Caste hierarchy

Correct Answer: A

Explanation: 'Ik Onkar' represents the unity of God, emphasizing that there is only one God in Sikhism.

Question 14 of 18

How do Sikhs commemorate Guru Nanak's teachings?

- A By isolating from others
- B By performing rituals only
- C By following superstitions
- D By living a life of honesty and humility

Correct Answer: D

Explanation: Sikhs commemorate Guru Nanak's teachings by living a life of honesty, humility, and serving others.

Question 15 of 18

What is the significance of the 'Nishan Sahib' in Sikhism?

- A It is a form of prayer
- B It is a type of food
- C It represents the Guru's teachings
- D It is a weapon

Correct Answer: C

Explanation: The 'Nishan Sahib' is the Sikh flag and represents the teachings of the Gurus and the Sikh identity.

Question 16 of 18

What is the primary language of the Guru Granth Sahib?

A Gurmukhi

B Sanskrit

C Hindi

D Urdu

Correct Answer: A

Explanation: The primary language of the Guru Granth Sahib is Gurmukhi, which is used in Sikh scriptures.

Question 17 of 18

Which of the following is a key value in Sikhism promoted by Guru Nanak?

A Compassion

B Greed

C Selfishness

D Superstition

Correct Answer: A

Explanation: Compassion is a key value in Sikhism, emphasizing kindness and empathy towards all beings.

Question 18 of 18

How is Guru Nanak's birthday celebrated?

- A By fasting
- B By exchanging gifts
- C With processions and prayers
- D With fireworks

Correct Answer: C

Explanation: Guru Nanak's birthday is celebrated with processions, prayers, and community gatherings in Sikh communities.

Thank You!

We hope you enjoyed this quiz and learned something new.
Keep learning and growing your knowledge!

Generated using

QuizByAI.com

AI-Powered Quiz Generation Platform

Visit quizbyai.com